WEATHER

Desert Area Forecast:
Considerable cloudiness with scattered showers today and early tonight. Mostly sunny Tuesday. Slightly cooler today and tonight, but a little warmer Tuesday. High today 65 to 70.
Palm Springs' high temperature Saturday was 74, low 42. Sunday high was 73, low 40. Rainfall to .01 early today.

WALKING AWAY from a 10:15 a.m. collision today that totally demolished his luxury sedan, is S. A. Sarkisian, left foreground. The Santa Monica man attempted a southbound left turn from North Palm Canyon Drive into Stevens Road, collided with a northbound tractor-trailer driven by Gerald David Shute, Los Angeles. Shute suffered a forehead abrasion, Sarkisian a cut little finger. Sarkisian's car was partially ground under the tractor, as the right rear of the sedan was sliced apart in the collision. NEWS in BRIEF

SPOKANE, Wash. (UPI) — Stored gunpowder may have caused a weekend explosion here that destroyed three businesses and injured 29 persons.

Investigators said today a natural gas leak first thought to be the cause of the explosion that rattled the entire city now appears the least likely probability.

NEW DELHI (UPI) — Indian Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru appealed to the United States today to hold off its nuclear tests in the atmosphere while the Geneva Disarmament Conference is in session.

"It would be very unfortunate if the U. S. government started tests while the conference is on," Nehru told the lower house of the Indian Parliament.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara called on Congress today to boost servicemen's housing allowances by $300 million a year. He said it was "disgraceful" that there had been no increase for 10 years.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy and congressional leaders have lauded French President Charles de Gaulle for his leadership in achieving a cease fire in Algeria.

A statement issued Sunday by the White House welcomed the French-Algerian settlement as "an historic accomplishment" brought about by vision, statesmanship and moderation on both sides.

BERLIN (UPI) — Western airline pilots continued to fly the Berlin corridors above East Germany today, despite a month of on- and off Communist harassment.

Both Pan American World Airways and British European Airways announced last week they will expand the number of their flights to and from Berlin.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House Ways and Means Committee will meet today to consider several amendments to the administration tax bill amid signs that the measure may be revamped to grant less tax relief to business.

A showdown vote on the bill is expected in the House Friday. Informal sources reported that Democratic strategists were willing to subject the measure to belated surgery in order to avoid a floor fight.

DEMOCRATS PROPOSE:

$200 Million for School Work

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Democrats today proposed a $200 million bond issue for the June primary election to raise money for local school construction.

Assemblyman Richard T. Hanna, D-Fullerton, said that without the money the state's resources for aid to local schools will run dry in September.

Republicans were reported

Rusk, Red Hold Surprise Meet

GENEVA (UPI) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko held a surprise 30-minute meeting late today at the request of the Soviet official.

The two met at Gromyko's villa immediately after the adjournment of the informal late-afternoon session of the 17 heads of delegations at the General Disarmament Conference.

It was their first man-to-man session since last Tuesday, when they held a lengthy and futile meeting at lunch in an effort to break the nuclear tests ban and Berlin deadlocks.

It was assumed that Gromyko had received new instructions from Moscow. American officials said he obviously had been stalling off another session with Rusk until he had some new word from the Soviet capital.

The Palm Springs city council will reconsider a trailer park zone change ordinance for 5.5 acres of land on South Palm Canyon Drive during the meeting beginning at 7:30 p.m. today in the city hall.

The zone change is sought by Edmund Peter Siva, and Richard Brown Arenas, who already have an additional 12 acres with trailer zoning. At issue is a 150 foot strip along South Palm Canyon Drive, fronting the trailer zoned acreage.

The council, which had asked for the ordinance for introduction, turned it down 4-2 last Monday, in the absence of Mayor Frank M. Bogert, Mayor Bogert, conservator for one of the principals, had abstained from previous votes on the matter.

The council will hold a public hearing at 7:35 p.m. on the appeal of the MEF Land Co. from the planning commission's denial of an application for a conditional use permit for a gasoline service station on the southeast corner of Yorba Road and North Palm Canyon Drive. A continued hearing on spread of assessment for district 37 will follow.

Other action is expected to include a resolution asking the federal government to drop the recapture clause from 100 acres of land given to the city, including the city hall site.

Costly Dinner For One Visitor
Dinner was costly for Mrs. O.A. Grundy, Minneapolis visitor here late Saturday.

Palm Springs were advised that Mrs. Grundy's purse was apparently in the Riviera Hotel dining room at midnight Saturday. Missing with the purse was $341 in cash, she said.

TEACHER TAX CUT

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Rep. Herbert Zelenko, D-N.Y., has proposed legislation to cut about $300 a year from a teacher's income tax. It would exempt the first $1,500 of income from taxation.

The GOP legislators, with an assist from gubernatorial candidate Richard M. Nixon, hope to force $970 million in bond issues proposed by Gov. Edmund G. Brown on the November ballot, at the same time Brown is making a re-election bid.

One other bond issue slated for the June election, $270 million for

War Over In Algeria, Fight OAS

Formally Ends At Noon Today

PARIS (UPI) — Seven and a half years of war between France and Algerian nationalists formally ended at noon today. They immediately joined forces to crush opposition by the Secret Army Organization trying to keep Algeria French.

The OAS struck the first blow with a massive general strike that wrapped the major cities of Algeria in a tomblike silence.

It was like the calm before the storm. French officials and Algerian nationalists alike foresaw a bloody struggle still ahead before real peace could be achieved in the big North African land.

President Charles de Gaulle met with his cabinet to give formal approval to the settlement reached at Evian.

A cease-fire was signed Sunday between French officials and Algerian rebels to go into effect at noon today (3 a.m. PST).

It meant the formal end of fighting between the French army and Moslem guerrillas which has bled France of more than $15 billion and cost the lives of 17,250 French soldiers, 141,000 Algerian rebels and 200,000 civilians.

It meant that before the year is out Algerians will have a chance to establish an independent nation ruled by Moslems.

French newspapers cheered it. French government officials and Algerian rebel leaders expressed satisfaction. But the leadership of the European extremists in Algeria vowed to fight on to destroy the pact and try to keep Algeria French.

The OAS pulled a general protest strike that paralyzed the main cities of Algeria today. Both Moslem and European workers stayed home — either out of support or fear of the OAS.

The Soviet Union quickly sought recognition of the provisional government which will rule Algeria until an independence referendum.

Lost Plane Clue Found

CLARK AFB, Philippines (UPI) — A search ship was reported today to have picked up an air mattress in the general area of the Pacific where a missing American airliner carrying 107 persons last radioed its position.

UPI correspondent Verne Miller reported from Guam that the minesweeper Gallant found the mattress while patrolling the ocean as part of the vast air-sea hunt for the Constellation, missing since Thursday.

The plane was last seen on Thursday.

A counterpart of the Hanna bill will be introduced in the Senate by Hugh P. Donnelly, D-Turlock. The $270 million construction bond issue will be entered in the Assembly by Jerome Waldie, D-Anthioch, and in the Senate by Hugo Fisher, D-San Diego.

JFK and Ike May Meet in Desert

President John F. Kennedy and former President Dwight Eisenhower may meet to discuss national and international matters during President Kennedy's visit in the Palm Springs area next weekend.

That's the report that was circulating from usually well-informed sources this morning — although it was impossible to confirm.

Pierre Salinger, President Kennedy's press secretary, could not be reached.

Miss Ann Whitman, Mr. Eisenhower's personal secretary, refused to comment on the report. "I have nothing to say about it one way or the other," she said. "An announcement of this type should come directly from the White House."

Miss Whitman's reference to protocol was interpreted by some as an indirect confirmation that negotiations were under way for a

Resignation of Cabinet Follows After 12 Hours

BUENOS AIRES (UPI) — The cabinet of President Arturo Frondizi resigned today less than 12 hours after a sweeping Peronist victory at the polls.

The collapse of the government was believed due to an army demand that the government immediately nullify the outcome of Sunday's elections, in which Communist-supported Peronists won control in 10 provinces, by intervening them.

Under intervention, the victorious Peronist candidates would be effectively blocked from taking office. The government would name so-called intervenors, or federal deputies, to assume the reins of provincial government.

The cabinet resignation en masse was sparked by the resignation of Interior Minister Alfredo Vitolo who had advocated that the government allow the Peronist victors to take their seats and hold them until such time as it was shown they were seeking to establish totalitarian methods.

The government closed all banks, stock markets and foreign exchange houses. The measure was believed aimed at forestalling a run on those institutions after the Peronist victory.

The armed forces, which ousted Peron seven years ago, wasted little time in deciding a course of action after the trend of Sunday's elections became evident. At an all-night meeting they decided to "ask" the government to seize power in the states involved.

In the past, such army requests have been tantamount to direct orders. Federal seizure of state powers would effectively prevent any elected Peronists from taking office.

The Peronists scored thumping victories in 10 provinces.

Weakening of Storm Forecast

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — A storm which was expected to bring from one-half to two inches of rain to Southern California began to weaken today and clearing was forecast for tonight and Tuesday.

The storm, which brought showers Sunday, was described as weak by the U.S. Weather Bureau. Only drizzle was predicted for today except for some local thunderstorms.

Light snow fell Sunday in the San Gabriel and San Bernardino Mountains causing tire chains to be required on some roads.

Desert Sun Progress Edition Due Tuesday

Palm Springs and the surrounding resort area are growing by leaps and bounds.

The extent of this growth is reported in detail in the Eighth Annual Progress Edition of The Desert Sun which will be published tomorrow and will come to your home as a part of your daily newspaper.

The exciting story of the fabulous Desert Empire and its rapid development is outlined in story and picture in the 48-page tabloid special edition.

Particularly featured are the gains that have gotten under way

Elephant Ride First For Jackie

JAIPUR, India (UPI) — A 35-year-old elephant decorated like a rainbow today took Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy on a rolling 10-minute ride around the courtyard of a splendid Indian palace.

The U.S. First Lady and her sister, Princess Lee Radziwill, rode in a gold and silver howdah strapped to the back of an eight-foot elephant named Bibia and were carried around the court of the fortress palace at Amber, a walled city seven miles from Jaipur.

Bibia Nervous
Mrs. Kennedy, an accomplished horsewoman, was relaxed and smiling on her first elephant ride. But Bibia, outrageously dressed and besieged by nearly 100 photographers, was nervous.

The female elephant's trunk and cheeks were painted with red, white and yellow floral designs. Her ears streamed silk banners. The howdah, something like a small roller coaster car, was perched atop a maroon blanket which hung nearly to the animal's chubby knees.

On either side hung large silver bells which attendants rang during the stroll around the courtyard.

On the elephant's neck sat a smiling, red-turbaned mahout named Abdul Hamid who piloted the beast around the courtyard with a hook, or goad.

Thanks Elephant
The elephant traveled only a few hundred yards inside the red sandstone courtyard. On dismounting, Mrs. Kennedy placed a gloved hand on Bibia's painted trunk and said: "Goodbye. Thank you."

Bibia raised her trunk and right forefoot.

En route to Amber, a tremendous crowd of Indians lined the streets of this pink city of Jaipur to see Mrs. Kennedy drive by in an enormous ancient open touring car.

Auto Accidents Cause Injuries

INDIO — An Idaho couple received injuries Sunday morning in a one car traffic accident on Highway 111. It was one of four Coachella Valley auto mishaps during the day.

James F. Moore, 73, and his wife Mary, 68, of Pocatello, Ida., told officers they were headed east on 111 near the intersection of Madison when he lost control of the car attempting to pass a vehicle. Their car left the road and struck several Palm trees near the intersection. Both were taken to Casita hospital.

In two other accidents, drivers were reported as following too closely resulting in rear-end crashes injuring three.

One occurred on Highway 99 at Avenue 48, at 8 p.m. resulting in injuries to Deola Llamas, 45 of Indio, who refused treatment. In the other, at Highway 111 and

Arrest for Knifing in Palm Desert

INDIO — Darrell G. Ritchie, 19, an employee at the Shadow Mountain Club in Palm Desert, is in custody here today over the stabbing of a fellow employee.

Ritchie was apprehended by sheriff deputies after Jack E. Pound, 21, was treated at Casita hospital for knife wounds on his left arm and leg.

Deputies said Pound told them that Ritchie inflicted the wounds while Pound was attempting to quiet him at 2 a.m. this morning.

Deep wounds were reported inflicted on Pound and he was rushed to the hospital. Although he lost a large amount of blood, he was treated and released. Ritchie is being held on charges of assault with deadly weapon. Both live at employee quarters at the club.

Springs' First Eagle Scout Dies in L.A.

John Ward, 35, Palm Springs' first Eagle Scout, died suddenly in the UCLA cancer clinic Saturday, it was revealed this morning by his father, Onas M. Ward of Redlands.

Services will be held at the Chapel of the Chimes, in Inglewood, Tuesday at 2 p.m. and it has been requested that contributions to the UCLA cancer clinic be made instead.

Besides his parents, he is survived by his wife, Lina and three-year old daughter, Joline who make their home in Santa Ana.

The deceased moved to Palm Springs with his parents from Yosemite Park when he was attending the fourth grade. He graduated from the Palm Springs high school and Pomona College where he was active in music and nature work. He spent his summers working at the park at Yosemite.

Trial for Modesto to Start Today

RIVERSIDE (UPI) — A jury, made up of six men and six women, will start hearing testimony today at the trial of Lawrence Modesto, 31, charged with the slaying of two young Hundred Palms sisters following an argument with their father.

Selection of the jury, plus four alternates, was completed last Thursday before Superior Judge Russell Waite.

Modesto pleaded innocent by reason of insanity in the bludgeon slaying of Connie Mack, 12, and her sister, Mae, 9, last Oct. 9. He was accused of killing them after an argument with their father, Ardell Mack, in a bar near their home.

The trial was moved here after Modesto's attorney claimed his client would not get a fair trial in Indio.

Peter Weihofen Funeral Rites Set Wednesday

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — Funeral services will be held Wednesday for Peter H. Weihofen, 67, pioneer resident of this community, who died of a heart attack Saturday at his home at Dillon road and Palm drive.

The 1 p.m. service will be held at the Little Church of the Flowers, Forest Lawn Memorial Park, Glendale, with the Desert Mortuary of Desert Hot Springs in charge. Entombment will follow at Forest Lawn.

A native of Illinois, Weihofen, had lived in California since 1909. Prior to moving to the desert area in 1929 he had worked as an accountant for Dabney Oil Producers of Los Angeles for 20 years.

There were no known survivors. Friends are requested to make contributions to the Heart Fund.

Friends may call at the Desert Mortuary until Wednesday morning.

Charles Robinson Dies in Springs

Charles Joseph Robinson, 73, a resident of the Racquet Club in Palm Springs for three months, died in a local hospital Saturday, following an illness of considerable length.

A native of Portland, Ore., he was the president of a paint manufacturing firm in Newark, N. J. Robinson is survived by one brother, Edward Robinson of Newark.

Burial will be in Portland later this week, with Wiefels and Son Mortuary in charge of local arrangements.

QUEEN of the Desert Circus for 1962 will be Louella Parsons, one of the world's best-known newspaper women for her Hearst newspapers column on the gossip of Hollywood. A native of Freeport, Ill., she will help carry out the Land of Lincoln theme of the event.

Marine in Car Theft Gives Up

A young Marine who gave in to a sudden urge to speed his return to camp in a handy car early Sunday had a change of heart and gave himself up as soon as he reached his base, Palm Springs police said today.

John Robert Smiriga, 18, of the Twentynine Palms Marine base, was returned here late Sunday after he gave himself up to a California Highway Patrol officer. The youth had earlier told his commanding officer what he had done, then went to find the CHP patrolman to report his brief escapade in car theft.

Police said Smiriga was headed north on Indian Avenue at approximately 12:15 a.m. Sunday, when he spotted a 1948 sedan owned by John E. Miller, Santa Monica, parked beside the curb near El Mirador Hotel. Smiriga took the car, and drove to his base. He immediately reported the theft to his commanding officer.

Miller had loaned the vehicle to a friend, who had parked it late Saturday, police reported.

REPORT EARTHQUAKE

HONG KONG (UPI)—A strong earthquake shook Hong Kong early today, rocking buildings and rattling window panes.

There were no reports of casualties, and the epicenter of the quake was not immediately known.

Louella to Be Queen Of Circus

The Queen of Newspaperwomen, whose syndicated column is read wherever the Hearst newspapers penetrate, Louella Parsons, will reign as Queen of the 1962 Desert Circus.

A native of Illinois (she was born in Freeport) which is being honored by this year's Desert Circus, Miss Parsons wrote her first motion picture columns for the Chicago Herald.

Her association with Palm Springs dates back to the early days, when she was a guest at the Desert Inn in Nellie Coffman's days, coming here to regain her health. She had often been credited with starting the influx of movie celebrities who gradually acquired homes here, and once said, "The movie people started coming down from Hollywood to Palm Springs to see me."

Now, it looks like they will be doing it again, for wherever Louella goes there go the Hollywood stars.

During her stay in Palm Springs, Miss Parsons will occupy the El Mirador bungalow which bears her name.

Maritime Strike Into Fourth Day

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — A maritime strike which has idled more than 20 ships on the Pacific Coast moved into its fourth day today with no sign of a settlement between the Pacific Maritime Association and three seafaring unions.

Ike Returns to Desert From Fishing Trip

PALM DESERT — Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower returned to his desert vacation home Sunday from a 12-day fishing trip at Las Cruces, near La Paz, Mexico. The former president's wife Mamie, and about 200 well-wishers greeted Eisenhower as he stepped off the plane with his fishing companions, oil executive Charles O. Jones and Los Angeles Lawyer Edward Boshyshell.

Flying Doc Found Dead In His Plane

TEHACHAPI (UPI)—The bodies of Dr. John L. Pelgen, 27, and three hunting companions were found Sunday in the wreckage of his light plane 13 miles southwest of here.

Clarence Harasta, operator of the Bear Mountain Ranch, found the plane about one-half mile from the ranchhouse while he was burning brush. Dr. Pelgen, known as the flying doctor of Calaveras County because of his flying trips into remote areas of the Mother Lode country, was returning from a hunting trip in Mexico. In the plane with him were three other men from Calaveras County, Dr. Duane D. Deakins, 39, Albert Moreno, 28, and James Mitchell, 36.

YOGA PRACTITIONER

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Stefanie Powers, who makes her film debut in Blake Edwards' "Experiment in Terror," is an advocate of yoga and practices the philosophy daily.

The walkout eventually could idle 120 vessels.

Gov. William F. Quinn of Hawaii, which depends upon West Coast shipping for about 65 per cent of its food, has appealed to President Kennedy to help settle the dispute.

"It is imperative that your action be taken to avert serious short range and dire long range difficulties," Quinn told the President in a telegram Saturday. He said the economy of Hawaii and state revenues were "drastically down due in large measure to 1961 maritime difficulties."

However, no meetings are scheduled between the PMA and the striking unions — sailors, marine firemen, and cooks and stewards. Three members of a special mediation panel named to help settle the dispute have returned to their homes in the East.

The unions officially put out pickets Friday, after refusing all week to sign on outgoing vessels operated by members of the PMA.

Tony, Janet Separate in Trial Run

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Janet Leigh and husband Tony Curtis announced Saturday they had agreed to separate in an effort to "try and work out the problems of our marriage."

The attractive actress said, "We like one another altogether too much to stay together and make each other unhappy." "Our parting was very tender and friendly," Miss Leigh explained.

They were married in 1951 and have two daughters, Kelly, 5, and Jamie, 3. Miss Leigh previously had been married to former orchestra leader Stanley H. Reames.

"We needed time to be apart to take a good look at ourselves," said Miss Leigh. "We aren't contemplating any divorce action at this time."

EXPLOSION in North Spokane, Wash., destroyed nearly a half-block Saturday evening and injured at least 29 persons. The blast, at first believed caused by natural gas, then that was discounted and the cause became a mystery. Windows six blocks away were knocked out, and a raging fire followed. (UPI Telephoto)

CLOSE RACE SEEN?

137 Million Voted in Russian Elections

MOSCOW (UPI)—An estimated 137 million voters Sunday cast ballots for a single slate of Communist-approved candidates for the Soviet parliament.

Based on past performance, more than 99 per cent of the voters are expected to approve the hand-picked slate, including Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev. Results probably will be announced Tuesday.

Men and women 18 years old or over streamed to the polling booths all day Sunday under cloudy skies. The booths opened at 6 a.m. and closed at midnight.

At stake were about 1,400 seats, divided roughly evenly between the two houses of the Supreme Soviet—the Soviet of the Union and the Soviet of the Nationalities. Khrushchev was a candidate in the Kalinin district. The candidates were selected by Communist-run organizations such as trade unions, collective farms, sports clubs, political clubs and cultural groups. While the candidates have no competition, they nevertheless campaign vigorously in the weeks preceding the election.

The government and the Communist party always are anxious for maximum participation by Soviet citizens.

C.C. Annual Ham Dinner Wednesday

CATHEDRAL CITY — The 13th annual ham dinner of St. Louis Catholic Church will be served in the parish hall on B Street at Glenn here Wednesday, from 4:30 to 8 p.m.

A large staff of parish women and their friends will prepare the meal of ham, yams, string beans, salad, relishes, dessert and beverages.

Record breaking crowds have attended the two previous dinners held this season. Tickets may be purchased at the door, for donations of $2 for adults and $1 for children.

Lovers of Music Hold Big Kickoff

Over 100 enthusiastic music lovers were in attendance at the kickoff breakfast Saturday morning to inaugurate the fifth season of the Community Concert Association in Palm Springs.

The group greeted the president of the national CCA, David Ferguson, of Los Angeles, who was honored guest.

Mrs. Ruth Marx, president of the local association, urged those present into action as the ticket campaign begins for the new concert season. Mayor Frank Bogert was also present, bringing the city's greetings to the group.

A one-week membership drive begins today for the 1962-63 season, with campaign headquarters located in the Center, 170 N. Palm Canyon Drive, store number six. Phone number is 324-5253, with offices open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. through this Saturday.

Mrs. Marx reminded those present that membership fee for the four concerts is $8 for adults and $4 for student membership. She pointed out that the success of the community concerts here in four years has been outstanding. That was evidenced with the Segovia concert last week which played to turn-away crowds.

There are over 1100 local chapters of the community concert association in America, according to Ferguson. The breakfast session here Saturday indicated that Palm Springs is one of the leading chapters.

President Party Will Be Immune

It's the code of the West — officials of the Presidential party due here next Friday will be immune to kangaroo court and similar Desert Circus touches.

In fact, the liaison and secret service personnel will be made honorary marshals of the big rodeo-flavored weekend.

The announcement was made Friday, during visits of the party which flew into Palm Springs Airport at 1:29 p.m. in President John F. Kennedy's 707 Air Force jet to make a survey of facilities here. The plane took off smoothly at 4:45 p.m.

Edward Faure, chief liaison officer of the Presidential party, and Floyd Baring, agent in charge of the secret service detail for President John F. Kennedy's vacation visit here, conferred Friday afternoon with Palm Springs Police Chief A. G. Kettmann, Air Force security officers and state and county law officials in planning for Presidential party.

The group inspected facilities in Tuesday's Tram Meet Postponed

A meeting of the Mt. San Jacinto Winter Park Authority, originally scheduled for Tuesday, has been postponed until Tuesday, April 3, Chairman Earl Coffman announced today.

The meeting will be at 10 a.m. at 1111 N. Palm Canyon Drive. Employment of an advertising agency and the quarterly report by Tudor Engineering Co. of San Francisco are on the agenda.

Crisis in Italy Over For While

Italy's government crisis at the cabinet level is over for the time being, but a new battle already is shaping up over the choice of a new president. The seven-year term of President Giovanni Gronchi expires May 11 and his successor will be elected a few days before a joint session of parliament. Considered a figurehead post, the presidency has been increased by the strong-willed Gronchi's personality. Thus, it has become a desirable spot.

Pakistan Danger:

Authoritative Western sources in Tokyo say that Afghanistan is one of the most critical spots in Asia today. The sources say the Soviet Union appears to be taking over that isolated country almost completely. The sources point out that the significant thing about this takeover is that the Russians are not using communism as their main weapon.

Instead, the Russians have about 2,200 "advisers and technicians" in the mountainous, landlocked country which lies on the Soviet Union's southern borders. In addition, the Russians have taken almost every junior officer in the Afghan army to the Soviet union for training and indoctrination. As a result, the sources say the situation—as far as the West is concerned—is "appalling."

Tokyo Takeover:

High level sources say that if the Japanese push their claims for the Korean-held island of Tokushima and which lies midway between the two countries—the

WAS DEFENDING HOME

Trial Scheduled for Boy 'Killer'

By H. D. QUIGG
STAMFORD, Conn. (UPI)—This is the story of a 16-year-old boy who probably will go to trial for defending his home against a stranger who had shot his father dead and critically wounded his mother.

The charge against him is manslaughter. He disarmed the stranger, beat him with the help of his older brother—and then emptied the stranger's own revolver into him, police said. This final act came just after the boy's brother had shouted: "Dad is dead."

John K. Chernuchkin, who had turned 16 only a month before the tragedy, is scheduled for a "probable cause" hearing in Circuit Court next week, and most knowledgeable sources expected he would be bound over to Superior Court and tried by a jury in Bridgeport, Conn.

Some Stamfordites today were comparing the case in tragic impact with that of Carol Paignt, the slim, golden-haired, 21-year-old girl who was tried 12 years ago in the "mercy killing" of her cancer-stricken father, a Stamford police sergeant. She admitted she shot him with his own revolver. A Bridgeport jury acquitted her of murder.

Four Other Children
The Chernuchkin family (it's pronounced "cher-nook-in") lived in a two-story frame house in a somewhat run-down section of town. The father, Edward, 41, was a factory worker. The mother, Veronica, 40, was caring for—besides John and the oldest brother, Edward Jr., 18—the family's four small children, ranging from 4 to 11 years.

The birthday party for the youngest, Gail, 4, was the scene into which tragedy walked last Feb. 16 in the form of Albert Shipley, 65, who came looking for Mrs. Alice Hill, 54, a guest at the party.

From police investigations and the statement of John and others, Stamford chief of detectives Ignatius Montagnino reconstructed the events:

Shipley had been friendly with

Mrs. Hill but she apparently did not want to continue so. He was at her apartment that afternoon, but she walked out on him. He told her daughter he knew where she had gone. He left and picked up a .38 revolver at a bank where he had a job as a fill-in guard one day a week.

At the party, besides Mrs. Hill, were another woman guest and seven or eight children. One of the Chernuchkins' little girls, who apparently had met Shipley at Mrs. Hill's home, suddenly announced: "Mr. Shipley is here."

He had entered the home without knocking. Mrs. Hill ducked into the bathroom, unseen by him.

Shot Through Heart

Chernuchkin was on the phone; he hung up and asked the intruder to leave. There was "some loud conversation" and Shipley pulled the gun and fired one shot. Chernuchkin dropped. The autopsy report later said he died of a gunshot wound of the heart.

Almost immediately there was another shot. Mrs. Chernuchkin, at the nearby kitchen door, fell.

The bullet went through her abdomen. The children were screaming and the other women ran out. The two older boys had been upstairs and came running down. John, a chunky 200-pounder, considerably in the lead. Shipley had the gun pointed at him.

John told Shipley to take it easy, and the latter looked toward the kitchen. John hit his right arm, knocking the gun to the floor, and began pummeling him. Edward Jr. joined in and they knocked him down. Shipley was on his left side, and John held him down with one knee, picked up the revolver by the barrel and hit him on the head with the butt two or three times.

John Shoots Shipley
Edward Jr. then called out that the father was dead. John, the detective said, pumped the four remaining shots in Shipley, who died within the hour at the hospital. The medical examiner's autopsy report said he died of gunshot wounds of the abdomen and chest.

Separate calls by both John and a neighbor brought the police to the scene. Mrs. Chernuchkin was taken to Stamford Hospital, where she was on the critical list for some time. She is expected to recover.

A total sentence of 20 years is possible in Connecticut on conviction of manslaughter. Legal points that might be opened in this case included: Was the Shipley killing necessary? Was Shipley subdued by the beating? Was there any time lag between the struggle and the shooting?

The Chernuchkin family was reported to have been a close-knit one and John to have had a great fondness for his father. The police said Shipley never had been in the Chernuchkin house before, although the father and mother may have known of him.

John, who left school after the ninth grade and who has not been employed, is free on $15,000 bond put up by an aunt.

TO COOK DINNER

Simply Pull Strings

NEW YORK (UPI)—We will give freeze-dried foods perpetual shelf life.

John B. Fowler, Jr., chairman of the board of Seeman Brothers, Inc., said in an interview that 21st century convenience foods will cook chemically and instantaneously when you pull a tear strip on the wrapper.

If even that seems like too much work, you will just dial for a meal by television, he added. Right now, he said, industrial employees in some plants are getting a foretaste of ready-cooked radar-heated meals from vending machines that store each plate frozen until sold.

The proper coins dropped into a slot moves a selected meal into a radar-heated compartment where it reaches serving temperature in minutes.

Special Diet

Fowler also said he expects hospitals to benefit from the vending machine and dial-a-meal concepts. A nurse will dial from a patient's bedside to a central kitchen, indicating in dialing what the patient's ailments are. A meal to conform to his diet then will be sent to his room by unira, an automatic carrier.

Fowler, whose firm markets more than 5,000 dry, canned and frozen products, predicted that workers in factories and offices who get their noon meal by such systems will be given high or low calorie foods, depending on the type of work each does.

"We may be 50 years away from one of these developments," he said.

He expects a big breakthrough to occur sooner in freeze-dried food processing on a popular price, commercial basis. Freeze-dried products are quick frozen, then dried and packed so that they can be stored without refrigeration.

Stumbling Blocks
The two biggest current barriers, cited by Fowler are production costs and a fool-proof, completely airtight container. Scientists and research engineers are

Mushrooms Are Mysterious

The praises of mushrooms have been sung for centuries by gourmet and simple country man, by poet and historian. The Pharaohs of Egypt monopolized mushrooms for their own use, exclusively, as a delicacy too precious for ordinary people. Mystery, superstition and folklore, too, have surrounded this strange little fungus that pops up overnight, seemingly out of nowhere. In India, mushrooms are often called "fairies' caps," and everyone knows that elves use mushrooms as stools to perch upon when they are tired. Some say mushrooms grow better and are more plentiful under a new moon; others say it is safe to pick mushrooms when the moon is full, but not when it is on the wane. In Africa, they say, "no rain, no mushrooms."

In the Admiralty Islands, it is told that when the sea had dried, and the first man and woman appeared, they planted trees and created food plants. Then they made two mushrooms. The man threw one into the sky, and that became the moon. The woman threw the other upward, and it became the sun.

Not All Edible

There are hundreds and hundreds of different kinds of mushrooms, not all of them edible. Years ago, people thought that you could place a silver spoon in the pot, and if it turned black, it showed that the mushrooms were poisonous. Onions were supposed to turn blue or brown, and parsley to turn yellow, if the mushrooms were not edible. This was nothing but superstition.

Today, we can buy fresh mushrooms in the market with no fear, because they are all marketed under strict supervision, and many of them are hot-house grown and available all year round. There is no risk involved when you buy fresh mushrooms at your green grocer's. Canned, dried or fresh, the mushrooms you buy are all good.

Some people say you can tell a good market by the quality of its mushrooms. If they are white, fresh and firm, you know it is a market that understands how to buy wisely and take proper care of its fresh vegetables and greens. Mushrooms quickly turn brown if bruised or exposed to excessive heat, and if they are not fresh. If you don't see fresh mushrooms in your favorite store, don't assume the store does not carry them. They are probably stored in a special, cool place, kept fresh and safe from clumsy hands, and if you ask for them, your grocer will bring them out.

They're Delicate

Fresh mushrooms do not have to be peeled. Simply wipe them thoroughly with a damp cloth or rinse quickly and dry them; then snip off the tip end of the stalk. If you do peel mushrooms, do not soak them in water, because this will ruin the flavor. Fresh mushrooms have a lovely, delicate fragrance like spring rain and wild fern, a delightful, earthy smell. The flavor of mushrooms is delicate, too, so do not overcook them. The stems take longer to cook than the caps, so the stems

LIVEN UP LENTEN FARE by serving a mushroom and tuna pie, with potato pastry. A fluted edge on the casserole crust adds are usually sliced or chopped up slightly thickened. Add tuna fish, salt and Worcestershire Sauce. Turn into a 2-quart casserole. Cover with potato pastry rolled 1-8-inch thick. Trim, turn under and flute edge. Slit crust in several places so steam can escape. Bake in a preheated hot oven 30 minutes, or until crust is brown. (Serves 6-8).

MUSHROOM AND TUNA PIE

(With Potato Pastry)

4½ cups sliced fresh mushrooms
½ cup chopped onion
2-3 cup sliced celery
2 tsp. fresh lemon juice
1-3 cup butter or margarine
1-3 cup flour
3½ cups milk
2 cans (7 oz.) tuna fish
½ tsp. salt
1 Tbsp. L & P Worcestershire

Saute mushrooms, onions, and celery in lemon juice and butter or margarine. Bland in flour. Gradually stir in milk, and cook until

Adds Flavor, Not Calories

Here are 10 easy ways to add topping to grapefruit halves without sending the calorie count way up.

One tablespoon each of heavy cream, whipped, apple jelly or maple syrup adds only 50 calories. Two rounded teaspoons of confectioners' sugar adds 46; ½ of a small banana, sliced, 44; 1 tablespoon of apple butter, 37; 2 tablespoons of sherbet, 30; 1 rounded tablespoon of cottage cheese, 27; 1 tablespoon of dried raisins, 23; and 1 teaspoon of chopped roasted peanuts, 19 calories.

POTATO PASTRY

1 cup sifted all-purpose flour
1½ tsp. double-acting baking powder
½ tsp. salt
1-3 cup shortening
½ cup cold, mashed potatoes
About 2 tsp. milk

Sift first 3 ingredients together into a mixing bowl. Cut in shortening and potatoes until the mixture resembles coarse meal. Stir in just enough milk to form a stiff dough. Roll to 1-8-inch thickness a half-inch larger than the diameter of the casserole. Place over casserole. Trim, turn under and flute the edge. (Makes pastry for 9-inch casserole.)

Toy Fair Shows A Wide World Of Makebelieve

By DOROTHEA M. BROOKS

NEW YORK (UPI) — A peek into the wonderful world of make-believe was provided recently when manufacturers showed what is new in toys at New York's annual Toy Fair.

If Dad's a golfer—or even if he isn't—the whole family can join him via All Star Golf Course, a nine-hole, 25 x 36-inch layout which requires the skill of real golf and is played according to PGA rules with a nine-hole par of 35. The layout includes four miniature action golfers. Each is equipped with four clubs which loft the ball. Both hands are required to control position, stance and swing of these miniature golfers. Elevated tees, sand traps, water hazards and other props add realism.

Wigs Have Become Popular With Paris Style Leaders

By ALINE MOSBY

PARIS (UPI)—The most popular new hair trend among the rich and famous in this style capital—wigs.

After a trying day on the Riviera or while whisking around the world, more and more French women are clapping on wigs when they can't get their own hair fixed.

The leading exponent of this fashion is Alexandre, who ranks as this city's most celebrated hair stylist. His customers include most of Europe's royalty, film stars and wealthy females, from Elizabeth Taylor to Princess Margaret, and many are collecting wigs, he said. He wouldn't name names of the wig wearers.

At Alexandre's elegant salon on Faubourg St. Honore street, the false locks start at $200 and up, depending upon the quality of the hair. He sells about 100 wigs a year. Some women own as many as six, in various colors, short and long. "Women like them for traveling," he explained, "or at a resort if they've been outside all day."

In his salon one recent day I counted four hairdressers curling, brushing and setting wigs left by their owners. The wigs were tacked onto dummy heads held between the hairdresser's knees.

For both wigs and ordinary hair, Alexandre has launched two hairstyles. He hopes the hair short, one inch all over, like a boy's. This he calls "Julius Caesar," and at Alexandre's you're supposed to have your hair dyed in gold stripes for this style.

He also dreamed up the pyramid shaped "Cleopatra" hair-do in honor of client Elizabeth Taylor's film.

"The bouffant style is finished," said Alexandre. But you still see many Paris girls wearing their hair-do in the beehive style.

Mystery of U-2 Flight Unanswered

EDITORS NOTE: During U2 pilot Francis Gary Powers' imprisonment by the Russians, a key mystery surrounded his unsuccessful flight: How was his high-altitude plane downed? Was the Soviet boast he was shot down by a new super-rocket correct? Did a flame-out force him down within range of Soviet fighter planes or conventional type anti-aircraft fire? Had the Russians developed a Mig capable of much higher flying than known before? The following dispatch, based on what Powers has said publicly and other information, seeks to answer these questions.

By NORMAN RUNNION
WASHINGTON (UPI) — In all the time Francis Gary Powers remained in a Russian prison cell, U.S. officials waited for the day he would return home and tell the real story of the destruction of his U2.

Powers now has been in the United States for more than a month. He has been questioned exhaustively by the Central Intelligence Agency, and made an appearance before a Senate committee.

From the public record, at least, no one still knows for sure how his plane was brought down.

The only theory advanced publicly is that voiced by Rep. Carl Vinson, D-Ga. He said the CIA believes the U2 was downed by a Soviet ground-to-air missile which scored a near miss, knocking the plane out of control.

Clears Some Points

But if Powers himself couldn't supply the real answer in public, he did clear up some speculation. He was not, apparently, shot down by a Russian Mig jet fighter. And he was not — also apparently — the victim of a "flame-out" of the U2's jet engine.

The Mig theory at one time seemed plausible in view of the doubt surrounding Russia's official claim that a rocket brought down the U2. Russia, it was thought at one time, didn't have a ground-based weapon powerful enough to hit a plane flying at 68,000 feet or about 13 miles high.

Some of the advanced Russian Migs do have a service ceiling of 55,000 to 60,000 feet, which in theory — could bring them up close to the U2. The speculation was that if such Migs were equipped with air-to-air rockets, might they have been able to hit the U2?

The answer is no. On May 1, 1960 — the date of Powers' flight — Russia did not have a plane or rocket that could do this.

In addition, it has been reported that Migs tried many times to get the U2s (although not Powers' plane) — and did not come close. Powers himself said last week that he saw Migs below him in the early stages of his flight, and believed they apparently had not spotted him.

Powers apparently also could not have been the victim of a plane other than a Mig. It's believed Russia has nothing capable of sustained flight at any where close to the altitudes at which the U2 can operate.

Speaking as a veteran Air Force jet flyer, he also maintained that what happened was not a flame-out.

"Different aircraft react differently," he told the Senate Armed Services Committee last week. "In this particular airplane I had had flame-outs before. Sometimes there is a chugging of the engine, but you know what that is. There was no kind of an explosion accompanying that, and nothing that would give an orange light."

His testimony also indicated that the crash could not have been caused by internal trouble, such as the failure of a jet blade.

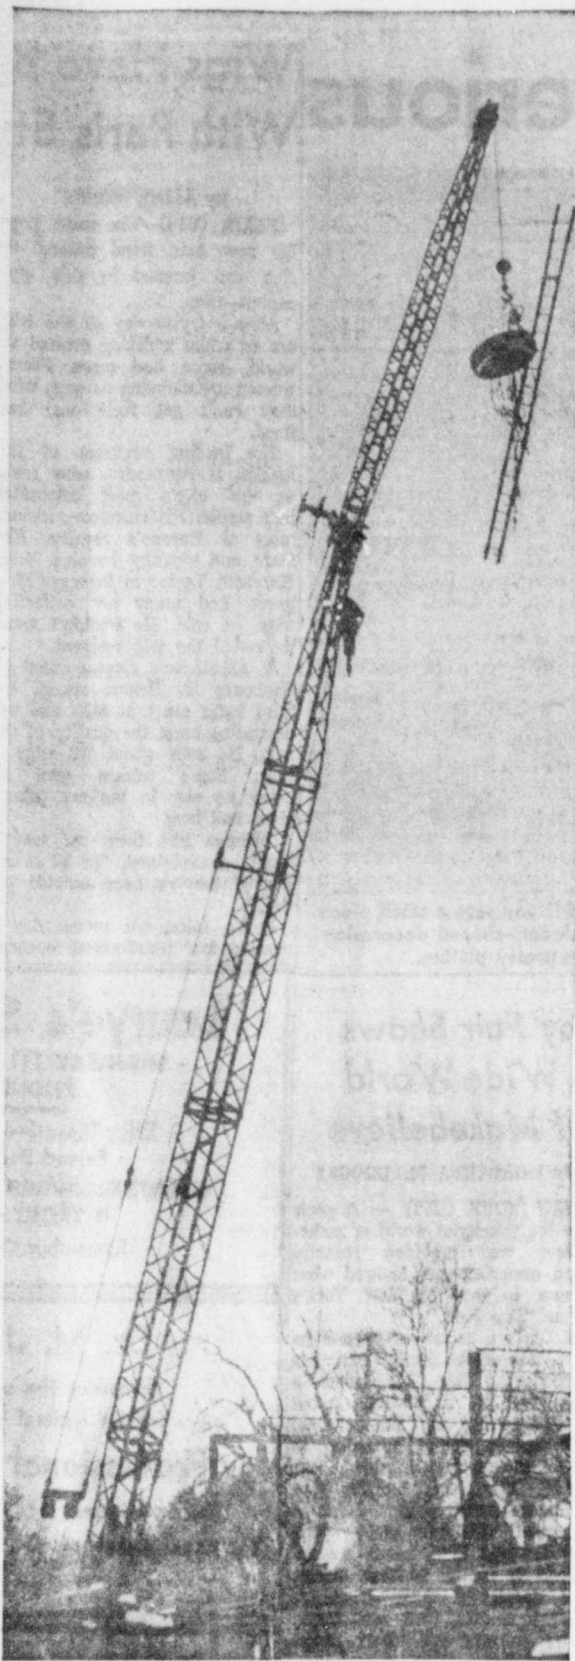

In addition to all of this, Powers also has cleared up one other question — why he didn't destroy the U2 and its secret equipment before bailing out.

He said that the forces of gravity were so great as the plane spun earthward that he was pushed back and couldn't reach the switches.

The destruction package was a small explosive designed to blow up the U2's secret cameras. But it also probably would have resulted in breaking up the airplane at the same time.

And that, as far as the public knows, is what did NOT happen to the U2. What did happen may never be known.

Buttons and Bows Day Set

It will be "Buttons and Bows Day" on the Nellie N. Coffman Junior High School campus Friday, when the youngsters and teachers of the school join in the celebration of Desert Circus Week.

Sponsored by the Rangers Organization of Nellie N. Coffman, teachers and students alike are asked to dress in western attire. Prizes will be awarded for the best costumes, according to teacher Nadine Hillery, who has charge of the Rangers group. A sock hop will be held where the judges will be located to view and select the outstanding Circus Week costumes.

The Rangers, an established group on campus, are teacher-helpers who aid in maintaining order and cleanliness on the school grounds, assist in the administrative offices of the school, usher at important school events, and help instructors on many special projects and occasions. Mrs. Hillery

AFTER TOUGH CAMPAIGN

New Orleans Mayor Here for Rest

By GENE JOHNSON

General election in New Orleans is two weeks from tomorrow April 3. Among other things, one office to be selected on the ballot is that of mayor.

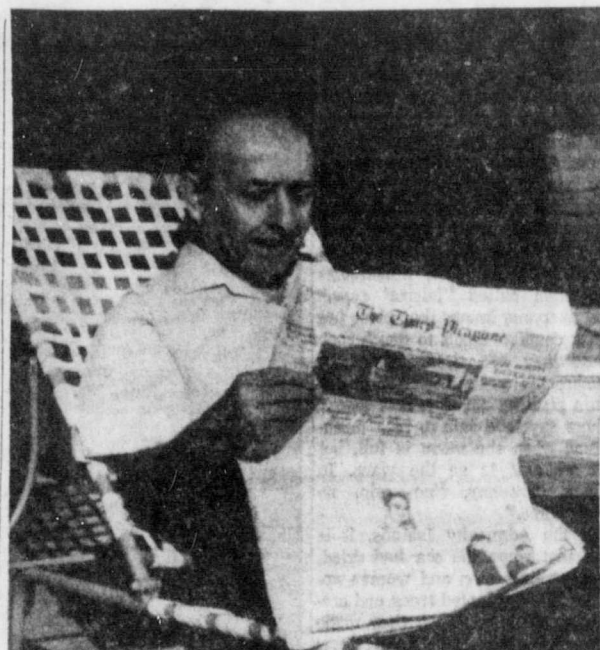

The Republican candidate, Ross Buckley, is probably out beating the bayous for votes, but the Democrat candidate, Victor Schiro, is relaxing in Palm Springs.

The reason, of course, is that the primary election March 4 decided the election for New Orleans. That was when Schiro overcame great odds to trounce his opponent, Adrian Deuplantier by 21,000 votes.

As he relaxed pool-side at the home of his good friend, Carl Goldenberg, 1138 Cateus Rd., Schiro mused that the election was the toughest he'd ever been in.

"All Against Me"
"All the organizations in the city were against me," he said. "The newspaper (Times-Picayune) the radio station, the old-line Democratic organization, the Morrison (former mayor) machine, all of them."

"But the people were for you," urged his wife, Sunnie, who is enjoying the sunshine although in a neck brace. "It's a recurrence of an injury I suffered several years ago in an auto accident," she explained in her smooth Southern accent. "I was over it, but with me." Schiro and Deuplantier battled in a bitter election fight after eliminating eight other candidates in a Jan. 27 primary. That vote resulted in Schiro running second to Deuplantier but the Palm Springs visitor won the important match.

Schiro, who is 57, will be serving his first full term of mayor when his "election" is completed April 3. He has served eight years as councilman - at - large and acting mayor, and has served as mayor since last July to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of long-time Mayor deLesseps Morrison to accept a Kennedy appointment as U. S. Ambassador to the Organization of American States.

Visits Kennedy
After his brief week's rest here, he planes to Washington tomorrow for a talk with President Kennedy on a proposed trip the president will make to New Orleans May 4.

He was eager to talk about his city, its new research missile plant. "New Orleans scientists are going to put a man on the moon by 1970" he said, relating the 10 year program for space worked out for the plant. He talked about New Orleans' nice weather, comparing it to Palm Springs salubrious climate.

Schiro also talked about the great port of New Orleans. "We're second in the country," he said, "and we bring in more cars and more grain than any other port."

Bud Taylor Bags Sixth P.S. Golf Title

Training PCL Briefs

CASA GRANDE, Ariz. (UPI)—The Tacoma Giants, flexing away the lingering winter kinks prepared today to embark on a 25-game exhibition schedule.

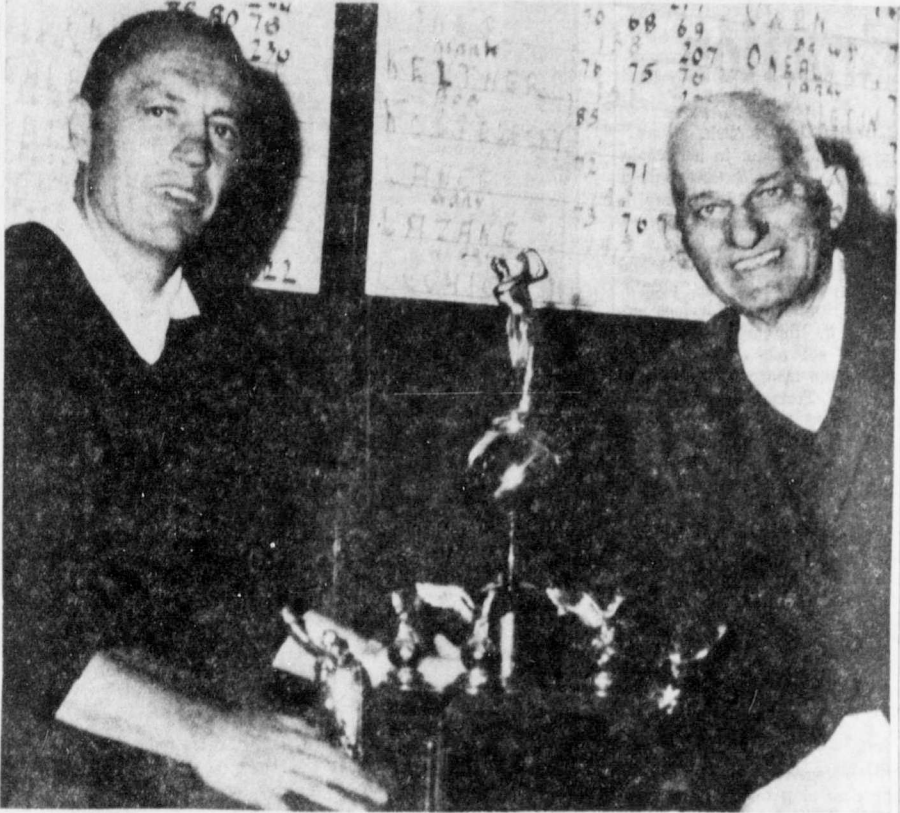

Manager Red Davis and his 32-man squad open the training round Wednesday against El Paso.

Davis said Sunday he was pleased with the abundance of youthful infielders on hand in camp. Highest-touted among them is third baseman Ricardo Joseph, who looked good at the plate in Sunday's three-hour batting drill.

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif. (UPI)—The Hawaii Islanders, practically every one of them a stranger to each other and to Hawaii fans, opened their 1962 training season here Sunday.

Manager Irv Noren greeted 21 of the 32 men of the roster Sunday. Of the 32, only five saw action with the Pacific Coast League team last year, and none was around at the start of the season.

The squad went through a two-hour batting drill on the first day of practice.

DR. BUD TAYLOR received congratulations from B. F. Shearer after winning the 27th Annual Palm Springs Invitational Golf Tournament held at O'Donnell Golf Club.

The champs name will be engraved on the trophy for the sixth time dating back to when he first won in 1936.

Beats Dick Ferry in Playoff for Crown

Dr. Bud Taylor, of Red Hills Country Club, won his sixth Palm Springs Invitational Golf Tourney yesterday at O'Donnell Golf Club when he took Dick Ferry into camp in a nine-hole playoff, after the two had tied with scores of 200 after 54 holes.

Angels Win in Wild 11th, 14-8

APACHE JUNCTION, Ariz., —A strong wind and "high sky" here turned the baseball game into a farce Sunday as the Los Angeles Angels scored seven unearned runs in the 11th inning to beat the Houston Colt 45s, to split a two-game series that probably sent some natives back to the hills.

Following the Angels first extra-inning win of the exhibition season games, they flew back to cozy Palm Springs late last night and took on the Chicago Cubs today at the Polo Grounds and will play the S. F. Giants Tuesday and Wednesday afternoon's starting at 1:30 p.m.

Skipper Bill Rigney had hurlers Dean Chance and Ted Bowfield on the mound today against the Cubs. Bobby Adams, one of Chicago's 11 coach-managers was at the helm today and started Al Lary, brother of Detroit's Frank Lary, on the mound.

Giants Next

When the Giants move into the Polo Grounds on Tuesday and Wednesday, manager Alvin Dark will bring with him such baseball stars as Willie Mays, Mike McCormick, Harvey Kuenn, Orlando Cepeda and Jim (Golden Glove) Davenport.

The Candlestick Park boys knocked over the Cleveland Indians at Tucson yesterday, 4-1, as Jim Duffalo, Bob Bolin and lefty McCormick pitched a four-hitter for the Giants.

Felipe and Matty

The two Alou brothers, will be seen in action in the two-game set along with Willie McCovey, who has been romping the out-field grass for Darks' Bay Area nine. Felipe drove in two runs with a triple and a single and also scored two runs to lead the Giants to the 4-1 triumph over Cleveland.

The Cubs were riding a winning streak of six games when they moved into the Polo Grounds this afternoon. They nosed out the Boston Red Sox, 6-5, at Scottsdale, Ariz. Sunday as rookie outfielder

NCAA Cage Finals at Kentucky This Weekend

By NORMAN MILLER
United Press International

It's just like the experts said even before the start of the season; Ohio State and Cincinnati are heading for the final in the NCAA basketball tournament.

To which Wake Forest and UCLA chorus a loud, "Says who?" These four teams advanced to the national semifinals Saturday night with victories at four different sites. Next Friday night at Louisville, Ky., Ohio State meets Wake Forest and Cincinnati plays UCLA. The survivors clash Saturday night for the championship.

Ohio State and Cincinnati were ranked 1-2 in the nation all season long by the United Press International Board of Coaches. It seemed inevitable that they would meet in the NCAA final for a repeat of last season's showdown, which was won by Cincinnati in overtime, 70-65.

Now only the inspired Deacons from Wake Forest and the fast-breaking Bruins from UCLA stand in the way of that "dream" match. And no one can blame Coach-of-the-Year Fred Taylor of the Buckeyes and Ed Jucker of Cincinnati for casting a few apprehensive thoughts about these two upstarts.

Eldorado Polo Club Beats Pomona Red Diamonds, 5-4

The Eldorado Polo Club with Peter Hitchcock breaking a 4-4 tie Sunday by scoring his only goal of the game, gave them a 5-4 victory over the Pomona Red Diamonds at the polo grounds in Palm Desert.

Next Sunday the Eldorado Polo Club will play the Santa Barbara club at the polo grounds at Palm Desert in the next-to-last match of the winter season.

Ken Walker of the Red Diamond team scored three goals to take scoring honors, while Jack Conant lead the Eldorado Club with two scores.

UCLA cut loose with its fast break right at the start and swiftly opened a 23-10 lead against Oregon State. The Bruins were on top, 44-30, at halftime and at one time led by 25 points. John Green led the Bruins with 23 points and Walt Hazzard had 17.

In other tournaments: Dayton and Loyola of Chicago reached the semifinals of the National Invitation Tournament at New York. Dayton drubbed Houston, 94-77. And Loyola beat Tennessee. In an afternoon first-round twin bill, Holy Cross edged Colorado State University, 72-71, and Duquesne walloped Navy, 70-58.

Mount Saint Mary's of Maryland won the NCAA (Small) College Division tournament with a 58-37 overtime victory over Sacramento State at Evansville, Ind. Prairie View A&M of Texas won the NAIA tournament at Kansas City by beating Westminster (Pa.), 62-53.

Vending Is On Upswing

WESTBURY, N. Y. (UPI) — Within a few years 25-30 million American workers will be eating hot meals in their plants and offices from vending machines every day, believes Harold Roth. They'll still prefer homecooking or nice restaurants on week ends, concedes Roth, who is president of Continental Vending Machine Co.

And besides the workers, there will be college and high school students, for the vending machine cafeteria will have made considerable inroads into the regular school cafeteria business by then, Roth told United Press International.

Continental's hot food machines have been in regular use just a year now. Among the companies that have installed them at some of their plants are Ford, Jones and Laughlin, National Lead Co., Continental Motors, Parke-Davis, Revlon, DuPont, the Pennsylvania Railroad and Johns-Manville.

Two large Wall Street houses, Carl M. Loeb, Rhodes and Kidder, Peabody and Co. have them. Wayne State in Detroit is the first university to put in the automatic cafeteria.

Although Continental sells its machines to other vendors, Roth believes integrated control of the business is the key to success. "Buying and preparing the food and serving the machines should not be left up to the whims of local operators," he said.

Accordingly, Continental has set up a national cafeteria department with 30 food centers across the country and franchises local operators whose operations in factories and offices are carefully supervised.

"The maximum price of a hot plate from one of our machines is 50 cents," Roth said. "We seek our profits from the sale or leasing of the machines rather than the food itself, so we are convinced we give a better bargain than the frozen food plates sold in groceries."

One machine can contain 72 orders, 36 plates and 36 casseroles, giving a choice of three orders. But a bank of machines for a plant will offer a choice of at least six hot plates or casseroles. It takes the machine only three seconds to defrost and heat a plate piping hot.

WASHINGTON WINDOW

Over-Spending Seen Way to Destruction

By LYLE C. WILSON

WASHINGTON (UPI)—As Congress begins to consider the Kennedy administration's big spending bills it might ask itself a question:

"Is it possible for us to destroy ourselves from within?"

That is: destroy ourselves by over-spending.

Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., put that question to Congress this month in sadly presenting to the Senate the administration's request for a stop-gap $2 billion increase in the federal debt limit. The increase was voted, hiking the limit to $300 billion.

The administration shortly will ask for an additional $8 billion increase. If that increase is voted, the record will show that the debt limit has been hiked by $15 billion in the space of a year.

Needed for Bills

The debt limit has to be increased to enable the government to borrow more money to pay its bills. The alternatives are either to reduce expenditures within income or to increase tax revenue to cover expenditures. Th politicians reject both of these alternatives. This compels the government to borrow, thereby achieving a steady increase in the national debt.

The bad guys in this deadly circle are not necessarily the politicians although they are bad enough. The bad guys are the voters of the United States who permit the politicians to believe the people would rather that the government live beyond than within its means. They aren't bad, really. Just foolish.

These voters seem to believe in free lunch. Any old time saloon keeper could prove that there is no free lunch although it appeared to be free. So it is with many of the federal benefits and services provided for the people.

These benefits and services appear to be for free. They are paid for, not out of the county, city or state treasuries but out of the U. S. Treasury in Washington, D. C.

Not for Defense

It is argued that it is not the federal services and benefits to deluded taxpayers that pile up government costs. It is argued that the enormous federal expenditures observed by this generation were required for national defense.

That argument is baloney of the ripest kind. The New Jersey Taxpayers' Association did some sharp pencil work on government spending since 1955. It reported this:

"Percentage-wise, budget expenditures for civil benefits and services have moved upward faster (67 per cent) than those for defense (30 per cent) reflecting burgeoning service and benefit programs."

Byrd's question packs a punch. There have been 24 federal deficits in the past 30 years. Two more are coming up, back to back.

Viet Nam, like Korea, is a divided land. A pro-Western government runs South Viet Nam; Communists rule the north.

Star Spangled Banner Sung in 171 Versions

By DICK WEST
WASHINGTON (UPI) — I hold these truths to be self-evident: —That "The Star Spangled Banner," when played by a band, is a stirring tune which starts your patriotic juices flowing. —That the same song, when sung by anyone except Lucy Monroe, generally creates vocal chaos.
This brings us to Rep. Joel T. Broyhill, a Virginia Republican who is trying to persuade Congress to adopt an "official" version of the National Anthem.
In an effort to enlist support for his proposal, Broyhill Thursday obtained the use of Constitution Hall and arranged for the U.S. Army band to give a demonstration.

171 Versions Copyrighted
Opinions vary, as witness the fact that 171 different versions of it have been copyrighted. Even Francis Scott Key, who wrote the original lyrics, changed a word here and there in his later copies.
The melody, based on an English folk song, is subject to even wider interpretation. This was pointed out by the Army band, which played some of the more familiar arrangements.
In one, the melody was overpowered by drum beats, giving it a jungle flavor. In another, the melody was embellished with counterpoint, so that it sounded something like a Bach fugue.
A third arrangement had the middle part, where the rocket glares and the bomb bursts in air, played so softly that it sounded like a lullaby.
I wouldn't have been surprised to have heard a "Star Spangled Banner Cha-Cha."

The band then played its own arrangement, based on the version in the Broyhill bill. Here the regular brass section was augmented with herald trumpets, and it was a grand thing to hear, provided you don't have tender ears.
But when the last note died away, a little old lady, who identified herself later as Miss Tilly Sutor, age 90, of Baltimore, stood up in the audience and voiced a protest.
"No one can sing it," Miss Sutor complained, and I could only agree. Some of the notes were so high they would make my nose bleed.

What Is Life Without a Fringe?

It has come to a situation in this country where many an executive is more than half seriously considering selling out and going to work for the new boss.

Exchanging his white collar for coveralls would probably allow him to exchange his anti-ulcer diet for a well-packed lunch box and the long worry-filled hours for a 25-hour week plus a lush assortment of extras.

In New York, Local 3 of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers went on strike for a 20-hour week. They settled for a 25 hour week at $4.96 per hour and a compulsory five hours more of overtime at $7.44 per hour, a permissible 10 hours more and a fat $9.92 an hour for Saturdays, Sundays and holidays.

Under the terms, an employed electrician is sure of $161 per week and could go as high as $235.

The union has a tight control on its 9,000 members and halted work on $200 million in building construction. A dissenting electrician could not only lose his livelihood but also risk losing his life.

The industry, 600 loosely-united contractors, had to yield. The union claimed that the shorter week would insure jobs but the truth is that there is now a shortage of electricians in New York.

The union movement, as originally conceived, has done a great job. That cannot be denied. Too long hours and too meager pay were corrected and organized labor raised the dignity of the working man.

But in some cases the old adage, give a man an inch and he'll take a mile, held true. The pendulum swung to the other extreme.

The shorter work week and higher scales are only a part of the picture of Local 3's grip in New York. There is the "Gold Book" which is a description of the fringe benefits paid the Local.

It is a unique, tight contract under which the employer pays all of the social security tax. Since the worker pays nothing, this in itself is a pay boost. The employers are the only contributors to a Central Pool from which Local 3 lends $1,000 to a worker to buy a car and up to $10,000 to retire a mortgage. It's interest-free. And if a member becomes ill or is laid off, he doesn't have to pay.

A special fund is set up whereby the employer pays $20 weekly into a pension fund for each worker. With social security and other fringes, a worker can retire at 65 assured of $80 a week for life.

The fringe benefits include a 325-acre retreat on Long Island, food and supplies paid by the employers. There is a annual trip for a deserving worker and his wife to Europe and each contractor doing business of a million or more a year must pay $5,280 for at least a six-year scholarship for a union member's child.

There are other items in the "Gold Book", extra pay for jury duty, $90 a year for tools and clothes, interest-free loans.

The fringe benefits cost the employer $2 per hour for every worker, $70 for a 35-hour week.

It is small wonder that many an executive in the industry is taking tranquilizers and debating whether a 25-hour week and all of the fringe benefits aren't better than running the business.

And wonders if he is even doing that.

THIS SIDE Of The Sun

R. F. "Phat" GRAETTINGER

Harry, the sage of One Thousand Palms, must take a seat in the back. His birthday's marked by an overpass, but mine by President Jack.

Not so long ago, tentative plans were discussed for the dedication of the new Ramon Road overpass on April 5.

THAT NEW BRIDGE over the busy U. S. 60-70-99 Freeway ends a hair-raising hassle for traffic trying to get on or off of the Freeway to Ramon Road or vice-versa.

It's finished and cars are rolling over it. But this piece is not about the overpass. It's about the Overlord of Ft. Oliver, that adobe landmark almost in the shadow of the new bridge. That would be, and is, Harry Oliver.

WHEN HARRY heard about the plans, he got an idea. On April 4 he's going to celebrate his birthday.

So he figured that if they shaved the ribbon-cutting ahead a day and make it April 4 instead of April 5, that in later days he could tell his great-grandchildren, and any others who might be listening, about the day they dedicated a bridge in his honor on his natal day.

BUT HARRY will have to take a back seat because of recent developments in the nation's news.

I have a birthday coming up on March 24. Years ago I was reliably informed by my mother who was there and ought to know, that it was on that date that I let out my first bellow in Milwaukee. I've been told that that yell cracked the distant vaults of the institution that made Milwaukee famous.

WHAT WERE THESE momentous developments that shoved Oliver into a back seat?

Just this, that's all. President John F. Kennedy will be on the desert with me on my birthday. Sure, we'll be several miles apart while that bridge is almost in Harry's front yard. But in later years, I'll be able to drop the remark, casually, to my great-grandchildren, that President Kennedy came to the desert on MY birthday.

OLIVER CAN CLAIM one distinction. He was the first to cross the overpass and he did it in that old 34-year-old station wagon of his.

Citizens of Thousand Palms, grateful to Harry for putting their community on the map, gave him a new car some time ago but he likes that old station wagon.

So with some husky friends huffing and puffing and using planks as a crowbar, he made it.

BEFORE I RUN out of space let me say this. Harry once told me that he didn't give a hoot what I said about him just so long as I added after his name: Publisher of the Desert Rat Scrap Book.

I almost forgot. But a President, I think is better than a bridge. Even if he's a Democrat. (Are there any other kind?)

ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

Dear Abby...

DEAR ABBY: Everyone at our bridge club roared over the letter in your column from the wife who complained because, in 37 years of marriage, her husband had not had 37 baths. I wasn't laughing, because I am married to a man something like that. He will bathe, but he won't wash his head because he thinks that too much water will cause him to lose his hair. I have yelled myself hoarse about how a clean scalp will help him to "keep" his hair, but it does no good. You know how terrible an unclean head can smell! Well, he has a big nose, but can't smell a thing. I usually end up by saying, "O.K., so go down and sleep with the dog." And he does. What should I do? —NOT LAUGHING

DEAR NOT: Any woman who can tell her husband to go down and sleep with the dog, and get away with it, has no problem. But her husband has. When he writes to me, I'll tell "him" what to do.

DEAR ABBY: My daughter-in-law is a pleasant enough person. She is a good mother and housekeeper, and my son seems to be satisfied with her. But she is a "me" and "mine" person. She says, "my house, my children, my car and my everything." Don't you think she should be thoughtful enough of her husband's efforts to say "our" instead? She reads your column—DISGUSTED MOTHER-IN-LAW

DEAR DISGUSTED: Yes, but don't be too critical. Her personal performance is more important than her possessive pronouns.

DEAR ABBY: We have a problem. There are six of us brothers and sisters. Last "November" we gave our parents a beautiful golden wedding anniversary party. They had their pictures in the newspapers and it was a big social event in town. This "April" our oldest brother will be 50 years old and his stupid wife wants to give him a big 50th birthday party. According to our calculations, he was born five months after our parents' marriage. Don't you think she should forget his 50th birthday party idea? —THE FAMILY

DEAR FAMILY: Not all birthdays and anniversaries are celebrated on the exact date. If your brother's wife were to give the 50th birthday party some time during the "golden year," it would serve the purpose. (Silence, too, is golden.)

CONFIDENTIAL TO "Sammy": When the cat's away, some mice act like rats. Next time stay home.

Remember When

March 19, 1952

Walter Glatter and Associates reportedly purchased the Sunset House and planned its completion ending a five-year controversy during which the unfinished building was assailed by citizens and councilmen.

The Seattle Rainiers, training here, defeated the Chicago White Sox A team 6-3 but lost to the Sox B team, 5-15.

Plans for a short-cut road through Lamb Canyon south of Beaumont, almost abandoned, were revived by county supervisors.

March 19, 1942

Chief Observer Culver Nichols received word that air raid warning corps members would receive priority on reread tires.

Mayor Philip L. Boyd approved a plan for a special bus to carry donors to the Red Cross Blood Bank in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Z. Allen received word that their son, Walter Z. Jr., who had been at Pearl Harbor during the raid, was safe. The message ended more than three months of anxious waiting.

March 19, 1932

R.M. Gorham filed for re-election to the Banning Union High School board as representative of Palm Springs.

Miss Louise Bramlett took members of Palm Springs Girl Scouts on a picnic outing in Andreas Canyon, as part of their celebration of the organization's 20th anniversary.

Play started in the Prescott T. Stevens Golf tournament at the Desert Golf Course, Mike Flavin was in charge.

BOB CONSIDINE:

Lie Detector Test Just Routine in CIA Work

NEW YORK — A somewhat sinister stamp was placed on the fact that Francis Gary Powers underwent a lie detector test in the course of his "debriefing" after being returned to this country. Actually, all CIA personnel, from the director down, take such a test upon returning from a foreign assignment.

It's all part of the routine of the organization about which President Eisenhower was moved to say:

"In war nothing is more important to a commander than the facts concerning the strength, dispositions and intentions of his opponent, and the proper interpretation of those facts. In peacetime the necessary facts are of a different nature. They deal with conditions, resources, requirements and attitude prevailing in the world. To provide information of this kind is the task of the CIA. No task could be more important."

The lonely lot of the spy bemused him.

"By its very nature the work of this agency demands of its members the highest order of dedication, ability, trustworthiness and selflessness—to say nothing of the finest type of courage. Whenever needed, I went on. Success cannot be advertised, failure cannot be explained. In the work of intelligence, heroes are undecorated and unassuming, often even among their own fraternity. . . . America needs and appreciates their efforts."

Pulled to Earth

The above remarks were made in November, 1959, at the cornerstone laying of the incredibly big and complex building which will house the CIA at Langley, Va. Five months later, Powers was shot down and symbolically pulled the President to earth with him. The Paris summit was demolished and, to a degree, the historic image of Mr. Eisenhower was shattered by the vicious personal invective of Khrushchev.

No American chief executive was ever pilloried more pitilessly than Ike, in the course of Khrushchev's conference for the world press before he quit Paris. He will have to wait for the general's memoirs to learn whether he thought as much of the CIA that day as he did at the cornerstone troweling.

President Kennedy's worst hours in the White House were caused, in part, by the CIA's role in the Cuban invasion disaster. The Presidents who follow Mr. Kennedy will rise and fall, to a degree at least, on intelligence gained by and interpreted by the CIA. The organization is now as solid a governmental department as, say the Defense Department. It will have its human breakdowns as it goes along, frailties which no cloak—however drawn—will be able to hide.

There are loose in the world one great and another soon to be great power which will continue to conceal their activities that bear on the health and welfare of the rest of the world. The Soviet Union and Red China will make for an ever bigger, stronger CIA, answerable only to the President.

Must Be Alert

It will take a mighty alert President to keep tabs on CIA activities which conceivably could do him in. Mr. Eisenhower, for example, had no prior knowledge of the fact that Powers was to be sent on a flight across the heart of the U.S.S.R. in an unarmed, single-engined plane just two weeks before he was to face Khrushchev.

Mr. Kennedy probably was a little better informed of the scheduled strike in the Bay of Pigs — the training phases of which were started during the Eisenhower administration. Still, there must have been some taken or omitted by the CIA which the President, as a military man, might have questioned along the line.

The law says that no active military man can ever hold the top position in CIA. CIA never confirms or denies a story, is not required to show its books to Congress at appropriations time. It could offer Khrushchev a $50,000 bribe to defect to the West, without the necessity of clearing it first at the White House.

It is the only government department whose wastepaper baskets are periodically emptied by security agents, their contents placed in red and white striped paper bags, carefully clipped and then burned. And surely the only department that has translation computers able to render Russian texts into English at the rate of 30,000 words per hour.

It's here to stay, and we hope it puts Powers back to work—this time over Red China or Cuba.

Letters to The Editor

Editor
The Desert Sun:

As a former member of the Palm Springs City Council and therefore well aware of the great work done for the community by the late Lawrence Crossley, the news of his death was a great shock to me but it also recalled his steadfast work for the good of the city to which he had come in 1925.

He was a great friend of the Indians not only of the local tribe but throughout the southland. He did much for them in the orderly development of their lands. As a city councilman, I was well aware of his activities for the best possible good for the Indians and for the city in which he took such an active civic interest.

All through the years he was most interested in the progress of the city and I'd like to take this opportunity to pay a tribute to his memory.

Sir: I want to thank you for your editorial:

"Preparedness Our Best Insurance." It certainly is thoughtful, timely, and "hits the spot," according to my experience and observations.

In fact, I will even go so far as to say that "Preparedness is our only insurance" if we don't want to become slaves.

Keep up the good work. Sincerely your subscriber and well-wisher,

HOLMES ALEXANDER:

Compassion Against Economics

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Among recent visitors to this office has been Al Mariani, about 22, who, until a couple of years ago, was a husky football player at California Poly. On October 29, 1960, Al, with his team boarded a chartered Arctic Pacific airplane in Toledo for a return trip to the coast. A few minutes later he lay amid 17 dead teammates and 25 survivors of a crash which should not have happened because the plane and its pilot were operating unlawfully, conceivably with the winking knowledge of Federal officials.

Today the young athlete is a dragging cripple in iron braces, with many months of hospital treatment behind him and many more ahead.

Now, Al Mariani and 40-some others, the survivors and the next-of-kin of the dead, are asking damages of $350,000 apiece, but no doubt are willing to settle for much less. They are claiming "the compassionate interest of the United States for losses sustained by reason of acts, omissions and failure to act on the part of the Civil Aeronautics Board and . . . the Federal Aviation Agency."

Tragic and pathetic The matter is tragic and pathetic, but in Washington that is never the whole of it. These claims for compensation are embodied in H. R. 9475 by Congressman Rousset of California. But there is another bill (S. 1969) by Senator Monroney of Oklahoma to provide the country with Supplemental Air Carriers. A sheaf of amendments have been added because of the Toledo crash, as well as crashes at Richmond, Va., and Shannon, Ireland, wiping out close to 150 lives.

Yet the Monroney bill is not a flying safety bill. It is not a bill to make the CAB and FAA bend more honestly to their tasks of public service. It is an economic bill. It seeks to raise the standards of financial responsibility for supplemental airlines before they are permitted to fly passengers.

These two bills, one by Rousset and one by Monroney, have locked horns like embattled elk. The California Congressman, acting for his constituents and petitioners, is not willing that the Supplemental Airlines bill become law in its present form. With a new aviation law on the books, Rousset feels that the crashes will be relegated to the limbo of bad memories. He feels that the flying public would soon be back on the same old merry-go-round for another ride to fiery death. The largely unprovable charge against S. 1969 is that it still favors "non-scheduled" companies which can buy or lease no-account planes, hire no-account air crews and never get caught at evading the safety regulations until a fatal accident grabs public attention by shock treatment.

Al Mariani writes me, no doubt with his lawyer's help, that "the families of the dead find themselves with hopeless lawsuits against a defunct paper corporation without assets. The insurance company won't pay off because the airline habitually operates in violation of almost every regulation that costs money to obey."

Needless Tragedies

He has brought me affidavits of three commercial co-pilots of a supplemental airline, who tell of being handed tests with the answers already provided and of landing and take-off proficiency check-flights which took place only on paper. Certainly it is true that unless such malpractices are exposed, punished and reduced, many American lives will be unnecessarily lost in air travel.

But the rushing business of modern life, the specific need for more private enterprise airlift, do not wait upon justice and compassion. As much as the heart goes out to these crippled and bereaved victims of Government sloth and ineptitude, it would be wrong to hold up the new Aviation bill until the petitioners are paid from the U. S. Treasury. These two bills should go their independent ways to consideration by Congress. They should be rejected or passed on their separate merits.

Here is a double duty for Congress. Both the compassionate and economic aspects cry for satisfaction. Compensation must be made if the Government was seriously at fault in these crashes. But, meanwhile, Congress owes the country a tough, tight bill, not to accommodate get-rich-quick airlines, but to accommodate and protect the flying public.

Michigan Move Makes Romney Good Potential For Presidency

(EDITORS: The decision of George Romney, industrialist, to seek the Michigan governorship, as a possible prelude to a presidential bid in 1964, focuses attention on the Romney family. In the following dispatch, UPI reporter Sandra Legatz takes us for a visit with the Romney family.)

By SANDRA LEGATZ
DETROIT (UPI)—If fate had been otherwise, the name of Lenore Lafont might have been on the marquee of movie theaters. But fate, in the form of an ambitious young man, changed her plans and her life.

Today, she is happy to be called Mrs. George Romney. The young man she married in 1931 became president of American Motors Corp., and is now a well-publicized Republican candidate for Michigan governor and a possible contender for the GOP presidential nomination in 1964. A graduate of George Washington University, Washington, D.C., Mrs. Romney attended the American Laboratory School of Theatre in New York.

"I did some Shakespeare readings and with them won a screen test in Hollywood," she said. Romney, whom she dated during high school in Salt Lake City, tried to dissuade her acting, but she was determined to give Hollywood a try.

"So I played bit parts in several movies, but at the end of three or four months, I wanted to get married, too," she said.

"I've never had any regrets about giving up the movies," she said. "When George and I returned to Washington, after our marriage, I still continued with my radio work and directed plays at the university."

Mrs. Romney was on a program called "Political Hitchhiking." Her announcer was a freckled, red-headed named Arthur Godfrey.

Her present home in Bloomfield Hills, with its wide expanse of windows and spacious rooms decorated in sunny yellow, orange and gold, is a far cry from the one-room apartment with a pull-down bed that she and Romney first called home.

In the intervening years, Romney has climbed from a $125-a-month salesman to an estimated annual salary of $150,000 to $225,000, as head of a company he helped to its financial feet.

He resigned only recently. The two great loves in her life are her family and her religion. The Romneys have four children, Mrs. Lynn Keenan, 26; Mrs. Jane Robinson, 23; Scott, 20; and Willard, 14.

As members of the Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter Day Saints (Mormon), the Romneys are active in church affairs. Romney is president of the Michigan State (diocese) and Mrs. Romney is a Sunday School teacher. She also instructs women's classes in theology.

LEADS LENTEN PROCESSION
ROME (UPI)—Pope John XXIII led a procession of priests and students Sunday, following an ancient Lenten tradition.

The procession was the third of six "Roman stations" which the Pope is leading personally, reviving a custom that had lapsed for 200 years.

Horoscope Forecast

By CARROLL RIGHER

TUESDAY, MARCH 20

GENERAL TENDENCIES: The approaching Full Moon suggests that in the coming days you will have all sorts of changes to accomplish a great deal, but today is one of those times to get all irksome and tiresome tasks behind you so that you can get out and really accomplish matters full speed head starting tomorrow. Get your plans made today and tonight. Lose no time, wind up the unfinished — prepare for the new — and "now".

ARIES (Birthdays from Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) — The right morning to get started on those many tasks that have been accumulating. Plan your work, and then be sure house, car, office, etc., have received necessary repairs and pets taken care of. Don't neglect gardening, either.

TAURUS (Birthdays from Apr. 21 to May 20) — Take time in A. M. for beauty shop or barber treatments that will get you in the pink. Then set up and keep appointments that will help you in your business or career. Get excellent results. Evening is time for fun and frolic.

GEMINI (Birthdays from May 21 to June 21) — Find out what it is that closest kin requires of you at this time and plan to handle such affairs on the morrow. Be sure to bring home little gifts in P. M., that will please them. Important you work hard for greater security "now".

MOON CHILDREN (Birthdays from June 22 to July 21) — Pay a visit to your doctor or dentist and make sure that all is well. Then get shopping done, read your paper for ideas you need to advance, as well as places to go for recreation with good friends this evening. Be active!

LEO (Birthdays from July 22 to Aug. 21) — See where you can economize now and be sure you have all bookkeeping details in order so that you meet obligations on time, etc. Some safe investment is also wise today to insure greater abundance in the future. Follow your budget.

VIRGO (Birthdays from Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) — Important you study your reflection in the mirror and are sure you are making the most of your natural charms. Then get out socially in the right circles and gain prestige, have a good time while meeting interesting people.

LIBRA (Birthdays from Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) — Indulge that penchant for neatness and order and make your surroundings ideal. Then the evening is free for whatever recreational activities appeal to you the most. Be gay, charming.

SCORPIO (Birthdays from Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) — If you contact close ties and friends, they will gladly give you ideas or monetary support that will help you to get ahead faster. Be certain you attend social affairs in the evening where you can also make fine progress.

SAGITTARIUS (Birthdays from Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) — By handling credit properly in the business world, you are now able to start an upswing in all of your affairs. Make it a point to ally yourself with those who are influential and expert in your field of endeavor.

CAPRICORN (Birthdays from Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) — Many opportunities are yours now if you read your paper well, look into messages from another part of the world, read the right trade journals, etc. Raise your level of consciousness and you can advance accordingly. Think "big".

AQUARIUS (Birthdays from Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) — Be sure you complete those tax and other important matters you started at the first of the year, particularly dividends, etc. Evening is then fine for being particularly devoted to loved one. Be generous, kind and thoughtful.

PISCES (Birthdays from Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) — Important you know that your true position is with associates, but you must take the initiative if you want to come to a better understanding. Cement ties pleasantly then get out to dinner together and have a lot of fun later. Be happy.

If Your Child Is Born Today. He, or she, will be one of those individuals who is forever picking up things, straightening pictures, repolishing mirrors, etc., which is fine and denotes that the best profession here would be one dealing with prophylactics and the like. However, give spiritual training as well or your progeny can get bogged down with detail and miss the big issues in life.

DONATES DOG FARM

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Paul Lukather, starring in "Hands of a Stranger," turned over one of the five acres of his hilltop Whittier estate, La Hacienda en Paraiso, to the International Guiding Eye for a "dog farm."

COLD WINDY city is reflected in this shot of ice formations along the lake-front of Lake Michigan. It was a result of a series of sub-zero days in Chicago. That's the city's skyline in the background.

THOUSAND PALMS

Friendship Circle Has First Birthday

THOUSAND PALMS — The Friendship Circle of the Thousand Palms Community Church had their regular monthly meeting Thursday and celebrated their first birthday. The Circle was organized March 2, 1961. Hostesses, providing the lunch were Mrs. Tony Schaefer, Mrs. John Papp, Mrs. Charles Steinmetz and Mrs. B. Eaves.

Bible study was continued by Mrs. Dewey Wallace and devotions were brought by Mrs. Leslie Thomas. Baby clothing finished and ready to be given to the Indian baby clinic were on display. It was agreed by everyone to give one day each month toward work on missionary projects adopted by the group.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Sloper, Monte Vista helped a sister celebrate a birthday last Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Erskine and daughter Lois of Long Beach spent the week-end with them.

Mr. and Mrs. William Chapman of Long Beach also spent some time with the Slopers. Mrs. Chapman and Mrs. Sloper were schoolmates in Nebraska in their childhood.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Ried of Calle Helena entertained old friends and neighbors. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Maddox and family from Anaheim were with them over the week-end. Mr. and Mrs. Hal McQueen and three children of Claremont visited their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Kidwell on Los Flores Way. McQueen is a nuclear physicist at Aero-jet.

The Kidwells were the proud recipients of word this week that John Kidwell, their only son had been given another promotion. He is now chief of engineering with the Army aircraft at Edwards Air Force base.
